- The session for new Pre – nursery will commence from 2nd April'19.
- As books and uniforms are outsourced, parents are requested to make the payment in cash or through Paytm. For clearing the dues at the accounts office, payments can be made online, through e-portal / credit / debit card.

Leading meaningful, productive and balanced lives is more than just good examination results. Therefore, a day is being dedicated exclusively for Student Development Programme which will include Teachable Moments, Academic Infusion and Role Modelling to make the students understand the wholesome definition of success. Attendance is therefore, mandatory on 19th March '19 for the students of classes VI to X for an ecstatic experience and a fun filled day.

Parents are requested to strictly adhere to the time slots given above to avoid inconvenience at the parking area and also at the uniform and book store. Parents are also requested to keep all the dues clear in order to facilitate a smooth and convenient handing over of report cards. Parents must remember to carry the ID cards issued to them and students must come in complete school uniform.

Wishing all our dear students a very bright future ahead.

Warm regards

Ms. Jyoti Arora

Principal
